

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF
Bryan Blundell

1674 - 1756

Cabin Boy · Master Mariner · Merchant · Slave Trader · Twice Mayor · School Founder
A Self-Guided Walking Tour · Liverpool City Centre · 1.5 hours · 2.3 miles · All Free

1 St Nicholas Church — Start & End Point

Old Churchyard L2 8TZ · Mon-Sun 9am-5pm

2 Museum of Liverpool

8 min south along waterfront · Mann Island L3 1DG · Tue-Sun 10am-5pm · Free

3 Maritime & Slavery Museums

5 min · Albert Dock · Closed for redevelopment — reopening 2028

4 Old Dock Viewing Window

6 min · Thomas Steers Way, Liverpool ONE · Free · Open 24 hours

5 The Bluecoat Arts Centre

4 min · School Lane L1 3BX · Tue-Sun · Free · Café inside

6 Walker Art Gallery

10 min · William Brown Street · Tue-Sun 10am-5pm · Free

7 Liverpool Town Hall

11 min · High Street · Guided tours available — pre-booking essential

8 Return to St Nicholas Church

4 min walk down Water Street to the waterfront

About: Bryan Blundell was baptised at St Nicholas Church in 1675. He rose from cabin boy to slave trader and twice Mayor of Liverpool, co-founding the Blue Coat School in 1708. This walk traces the city he shaped and the history we are still reckoning with today.

Full walking guide with detailed stop descriptions available at the Facebook page below

Full walking tour document also available to download

The Story of Bryan Blundell — August 2026 — Ben Shaw

Full walking guide, research & updates on the Facebook page below

Scan to follow the author's Facebook page

facebook.com · Search: Ben Shaw · The Story of Bryan Blundell

